Patricia Conklin and Edward Morton are sworn.

Discussion ensues between the Court and the parties with regard to the allegations set forth in Petitioner's Petition to Modify Custody, child support, and child support arrearages.

Pursuant to the discussion held on the record in open court this date,

THE COURT FINDS that, pursuant to A.R.S. §25-411(A) and A.R.S. §25-403(D)(1)(2)(3) Petitioner's Petition for Change of Custody is appropriate with respect to the parties' son, Evan, and is in the best interest of Evan. The Petitioner having demonstrated to the Court that there is a substantial and continuing change in circumstance warranting modification,

IT IS ORDERED modifying the current custody order to reflect that Mother shall have sole care, custody, and control of the parties' son, Evan Morton, date of birth February 2, 1989.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED "flip-flopping" the parenting time schedule to reflect that that Respondent/Father shall exercise his parenting time using the same schedule followed by Petitioner/Mother prior to this Court granting Petitioner's Petition for Change of Custody.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent/Father's summer parenting time with the child shall be exercised in two, two-week intervals, with one month in between each two week interval.

Petitioner/Mother addresses the Court with regard to a change of custody concerning the parties' daughter, Katelyn.

Based upon the testimony presented by the parties on the record in open court,

THE COURT FINDS that, pursuant to A.R.S. §25-411(A), it would not be appropriate to enter an order changing custody with regard to the parties' daughter, Katelyn. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED denying Petitioner/Mother's request for change of custody with respect to Katelyn; the parties shall continue to have joint custody of Katelyn.

THE PARTIES STIPULATE TO NO CHILD SUPPORT ARREARAGES

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that the parties' have stipulated that there are no child support arrearages due and owing as of today's date. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED adopting the parties' stipulation with regard to child support arrearages as a formal Order of the Court this date.
